should feel out in future to have a solid pitcher body..

BASEBALL SKILLS

Arm Action

5 - Above Average

Comments

good pitching action short on backside with good extension out front... Arm works well with good quickness thru release..

Throwing Effort

5 - Above Average

Comments

easy actions not much effort.

Arm Strength

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

good arm strength w/occasion good FB late life in zone.

Delivery

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Good delivery, short compact with easy action thru finish.

Control

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

fairly good command of stuff often in zone often with all pitches..

Fastball

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Good fastball with occasional good arm side sink. Fastball has good riding life at times. It should get more velocity with natural development.

Off Speed

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

He has a fairly good breaking ball. Often has loose spin but occasionally shows good spin and late tilting break.

PLAYER SUMMARY

Sound pitching mechanics with easy arm action that should only get better as he pitches more. Average fastball with occasional good arm side life. Breaking ball will need time to develop but shows good signs of quality. As he develops physically he should be able to play at a division 2 maybe 1 school.
